at the forefront in its field this handbook examines the theoretical conceptual pedagogical and methodological development of media literacy education and research around the world building on traditional media literacy frameworks in critical analysis evaluation and assessment it incorporates new literacies emerging around connective technologies mobile platforms and social networks a global perspective rather than a western centric point of view is explicitly highlighted with contributors from all continents to show the empirical research being done at the intersection of media education and engagement in daily life structured around five themes educational interventions safeguarding data and online privacy engagement in civic life media creativity and production digital media literacy the volume as a whole emphasizes the competencies needed to engage in meaningful participation in digital culture this open access book brings together storytelling and self narrative creative writing and narrative enquiry to explore a variety of topics in migration from an experiential lens the volume is hybrid and multi genre as it contains both scholarly chapters grounded in academic perspectives as well as personal essays and creative non fiction in addition to critical reflections on key migration topics and concepts like identity and diversity integration and agency transnationalism and return the scholarly chapters also propose a particular methodology for workshopping migration narratives and writing about personal lived experiences through iterations of scientific reflection narrative enquiry and creative imagination the book explores the potential of a new conceptual paradigm and methodological process to learn more and also differently about the migration experience finally this volume asks a bigger question too how do we define the boundaries of research is it possible to entirely separate the spatial temporal and methodological parameters in which projects are developed and pursued and how can the specifics of these multiple contexts contribute to shaping the knowledge being produced
