Latin America has a rich literary tradition that is receiving growing amounts of attention. The body of Latin American mystery writing is especially vast and diverse because it is part of Latin American popular culture. It also reflects many of the social and cultural concerns of that region. This reference provides an overview of mystery fiction of Latin America while many of the authors profiled have received critical attention. Others have been relatively neglected. Included are alphabetically arranged entries on 54 writers, most of whom are from Argentina, Mexico, and Cuba. Every effort has been made to include balanced coverage of the few female mystery writers. Each entry is written by an expert contributor and includes a brief biography, a critical discussion of the writer's works, and primary and secondary bibliographies. The volume closes with a general bibliography of anthologies and criticism.

What constitutes a border situation? How translatable and portable is the border? What are the borders of words surrounding the border? In its five sections, Border Transits: Literature and Culture across the Line intends to address these issues as it brings together visions of border dynamics from both sides of the Atlantic Ocean. The volume opens with Part I, Borders and Lines, a theoretical intervention which explores the circle and the cross as spatial configurations of two contradictory urges: to separate and divide on the one hand, and to welcome and allow passage on the other. Part II, Visions of the Mexican-US Border, zooms in onto the Mexican-US border as it delves into the border transits between the two neighboring countries but what happens when we situate the border on the cultural terrain? How well does the border travel? Part III, Cultural Intersections, expands the border encounter as it deals with the different ways in which texts are encoded, registered, appropriated, mimicked, and transformed in other cultural texts. Part IV, Trans-Nations, addresses instances of trans-American relations stemming from experiences of uprooting and intercultural contacts in the context of mass migration and migratory flows. Finally, Part V, Trans-Lations, deals with the ways in which the cultural borderlands suffuse other discourses and cultural practices. The volume is of interest for scholars and researchers in the field of border studies, Chicano studies, ethnic studies, as well as
